Newsletter- Friday 10th November

We have all settled back into the second half of the autumn term and have been very busy! Our learning this week has been focussed on Remembrance and all classes have produced some excellent work.

We have displayed some of it in St Chad's Church.

As Remembrance day is on Saturday this year we held our two minute silence today by the War memorial and on Sunday our Head Boy and Head Girl will be reading in Church.

Our School Council have planned our Children in Need day!

Friday 17th November

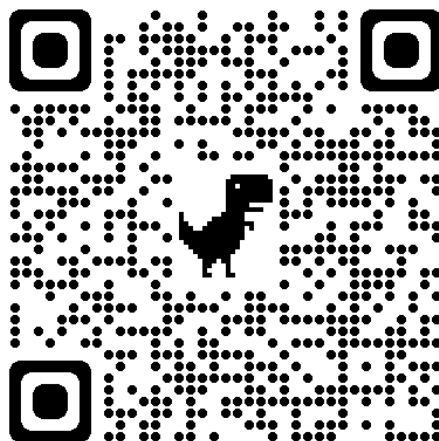

They have decided to host a wear your pyjamas day with crazy hair!
(If you don't want to do it Non-uniform is fine!)

Luna's mum has very kindly offered to make cakes for a cake sale

School Council will also be holding an assembly explain why we are fundraising for this charity.
Our just giving page is now live! We ask a £2 donation for dressing up and a cake in school.
