Our first full week back has been a great success! We've all adapted well to life at St Chad's and are enjoying every minute. We're getting ready for Harvest by learning our songs.

If you hear the distinctive sound of the Big Red Combine, it means Harvest season is here!

We will be sending out slips next week to confirm your presence at the Harvest Service on Sunday 20^{th} October so we can prepare scripts etc.

I hope you all have a lovely weekend!

Warm wishes

Nicola Locker and the St Chad's Team

In our Collective Worships this week will be launching our Pupil Voice Groups.

We will share on SeeSaw the application process for each group.

Consent form QR code

Thank you to all the parents that have already updated their information. This is so we can have update to date contacts details, allergies and consent.

Please can all long hair be tied up for school please! We want to try and reduce our little visitors!

Over the holidays I have had another read out of the previous months speed through the village.

Unfortunately, it is showing that 91% traffic through the village is going over the speed limit!

Please help us keep our village safe!
