Newsletter Friday 14th March

This week has certainly kept us on our toes! We've welcomed a variety of visitors who have enriched our learning environment. Our school improvement advisor, Mr Lord, took the time to observe our maths books and was genuinely impressed with the progress he saw. He thoroughly enjoyed engaging with our learners and their enthusiasm for the subject.

Additionally, we had the pleasure of hosting Mrs Caulfield, who is collaborating with us on the Talk for Writing initiative. She, too, was delighted by the noticeable advancements we've made in writing standards throughout the school.

Last but not least, Danielle Ashfield from Champions for Sport led an energetic session that got everyone moving and motivated! We are immensely grateful to all our sponsors for their support. We promise to update you on the total amount raised soon. Thank you for being part of our vibrant school community!

Have a great weekend!

Warm wishes

Nicola Locker and the St Chad's Team

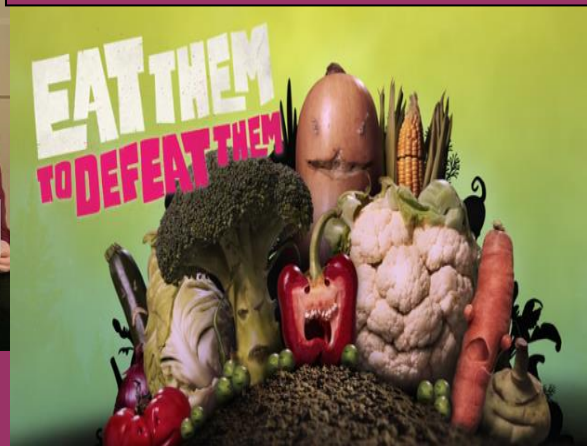

This week marked a year since Mrs Owens sadly passed away. We extend our heartfelt thoughts and love to the family. Mrs Owens remains in our hearts and thoughts and we will shortly be having a memorial service.

Fantastic photographs are being uploaded to Seesaw of you eating your vegetables! Miss Griffiths will be sharing the winners in her Collective Worship on Monday!

Celebrating our achievements this week in our Celebration Collective Worship.
