Friday 21st March

What an incredible week we've had! It all started off with our Year 6 pupils excelling in their Bikeability sessions, showcasing their skills and confidence. Then came Wednesday, which was simply a spectacular day! Everyone put in a fantastic effort, looking absolutely brilliant. A massive shoutout to all for their creativity and enthusiasm—it truly made the day special. A heartfelt thanks to the staff as well, who embraced the spirit of the occasion and demonstrated tremendous good humour. Your support really made a difference, and it was wonderful to see everyone coming together and having fun.

Have a great weekend!

Warm wishes

Nicola Locker and the St Chad's Team

Well done to all Year 6 cyclists! They have all passed their Level 1 and 2 Bikeability. We had some wonderful feedback from the trainers, how polite and sensible they all were. Well done!

Dosbarth 3 had a fantastic session with Mr Hardwick learning to play the ukulele.

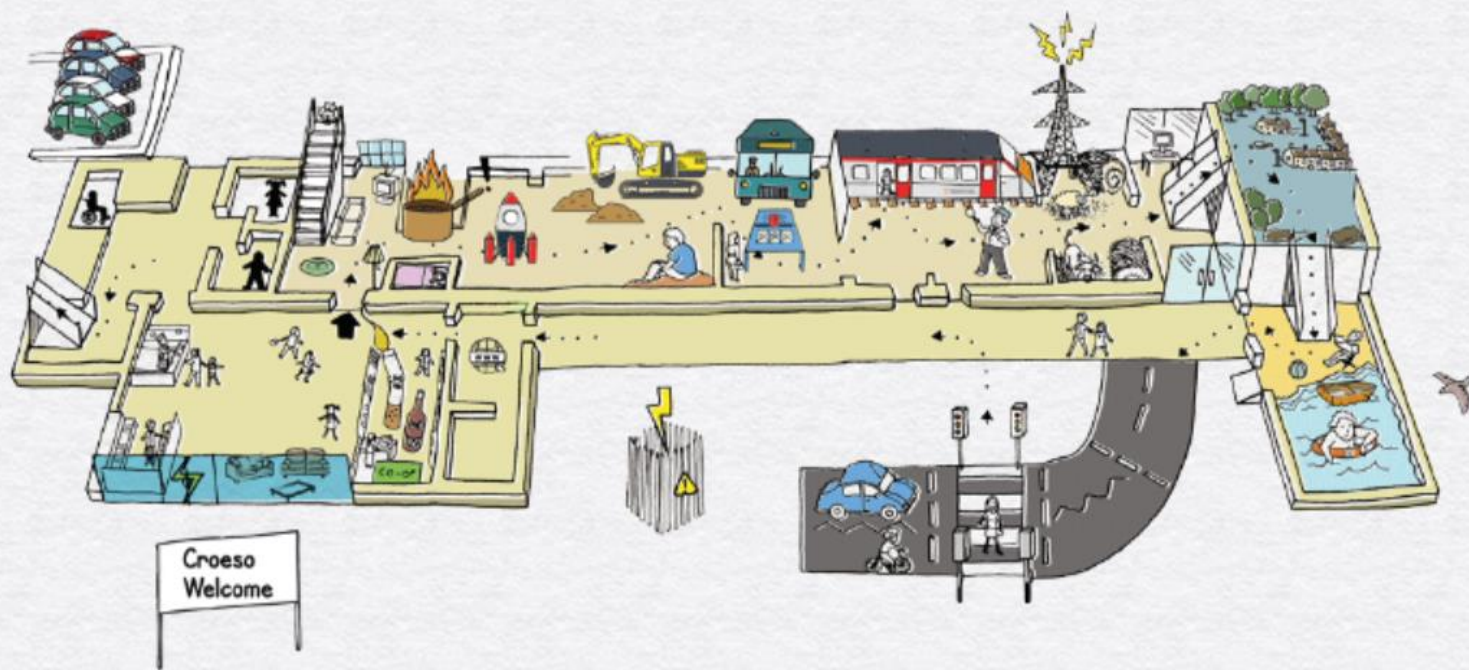

Da iawn to Billy and Harry who represented our School at the Cluster Eisteddfod. You did amazing reciting the poem.

Thank you all for all your support with the book fair! We raised over £275 worth of books!

Our stars of the week!

Dosbarth 3 a 4 are looking forward to their school trip on Wednesday!
